

Using the AspiringDocs.org Web Ads

Banner Ads

In addition to a range of sizes and orientations, some of the provided banners are animated and some are static. All banners should link to <http://www.aspiringdocs.org>. We request that you do not modify the banners in any way other than scaling down in size to fit your Web site. Please do not enlarge the banners since this will cause image quality to degrade.

Linking from the Logo

If you wish to promote AspiringDocs.org on your Web site but prefer not to use the ads, you may use the enclosed AspiringDocs.org logo (linked to <http://www.aspiringdocs.org>) with the following text: "Visit the AAMC Web site to increase diversity in medicine."

Text Only

If you wish to avoid graphics altogether, you may use a text-only link that reads: "Visit AspiringDocs.org, the AAMC Web to increase diversity in medicine," linked to <http://www.aspiringdocs.org>.

Questions

If you have questions about AspiringDocs.org or promoting it on your site, please contact Eric Weissman at the AAMC at eweissman@aamc.org.
